Dear Paul:

Thank you so much for your thoughtful letter of August 7. The decision to stay at Highland was a difficult one to make but I feel, as your letter indicates, that it was the right thing to do.

I was personally saddened at not getting to go on to school now because I feel so strongly the need for better training. The Lord, however, must have a use for me here and the great excitement is opening my life to His continuing will and use of me.

I pray for your ministry a continuing effectiveness.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

May I take only a moment of your time to express my relief and joy over your most recent decision to remain in Abilene and minister to the needs of the people of God there through the Highland church.

I am moved by your true concern for what is right and herald your judgment to work there. I am convinced your superior talent can be more widely used for the cause of the Master, now that decision has been made final.

I hope and pray God will abide in you always to his glory and honor. Let me know of your whereabouts and activities.

In Him,

Paul Killom BA
